

A PICTORIAL PAGE IS AN IDEAL PLACE TO FIND THE NEWS ON A HOT JULY DAY

"MOTHERS' CORNER" AT THE RED BANK SANATORIUM
A hammock swung from shady trees and swayed by cool river breezes combats the infant mortality wrought in sun-baked, brick-walled courts and stuffy tenements.

CREW OF THE MUNICIPAL NAVY'S "FLAGSHIP"
Lieutenant Grant Marple (fourth figure from right), commander of the police tug Samuel H. Ashbridge, and the members of the Delaware Harbor District No. 1 at the Race street pier.

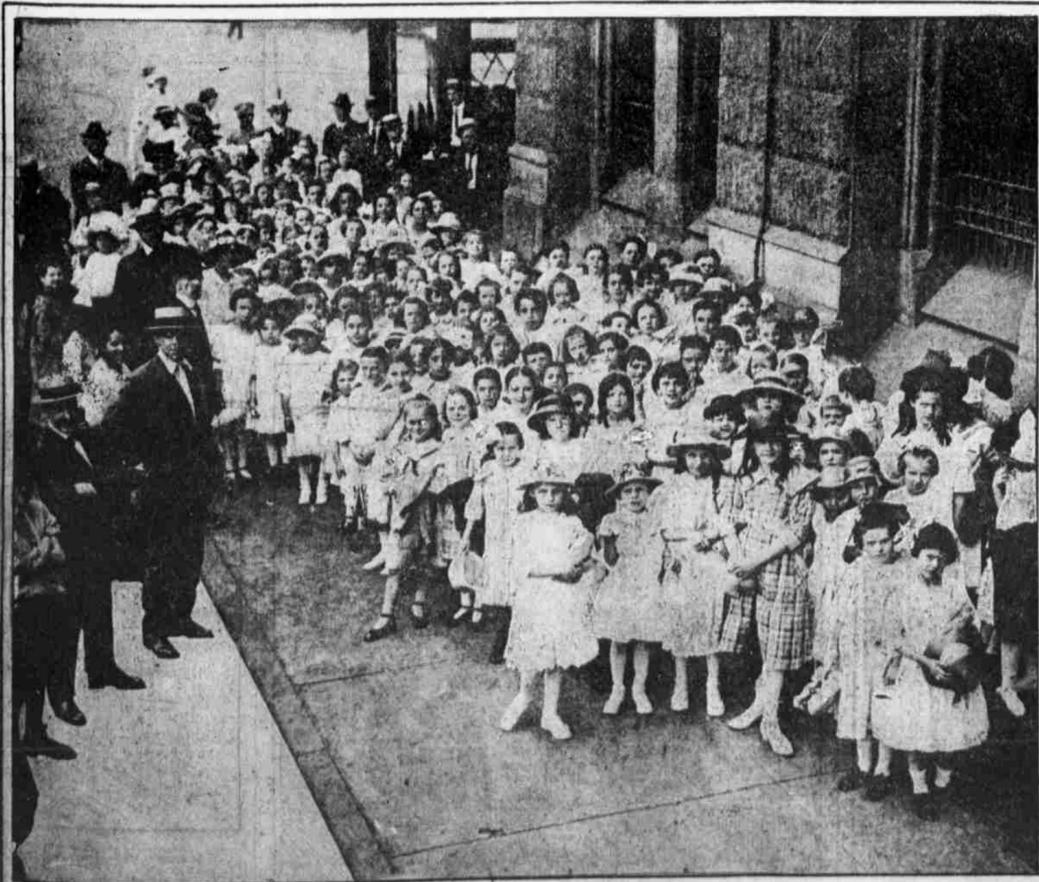

"GEE! THESE EATS CERTAINLY MAKE YOU FORGET IT'S HOT"
In no spirit of derision is the nickname "Soupy Island" bestowed upon Red Bank by its juvenile patrons.

COME ON IN, FELLOWS! THE WATER'S GREAT
Even the "faddies" at the Zoological Gardens have their daily shower, bath these tropical times.

A GARDEN THAT MANY A YOUNGER CITY FARMER MIGHT ENVY
Patrick O'Donnell, an old sea salt of days long past, proudly exhibits to Dr. Frank McCullough, U. S. N., his vegetable plot at the Naval Home.

ATLANTIC CITY RED CROSS NURSES READY TO "DO THEIR BIT"
Copyright, International Film Service.
In the picture are Mrs. V. Henderson Hentz, Mrs. J. R. Baltz, Mrs. F. D. Vetterlein, Mrs. H. Atmore Prisenir, Miss Mary C. O'Neill, Miss Florence K. Leavitt and Mrs. Leslie Walker.

OFF FOR GREEN FIELDS AND FRESH COUNTRY AIR
Two hundred school children start for Port Kennedy to spend a week as the guests of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

BOY SCOUTS OPEN SUMMER CAMP AT BROOMALL
Scoutmaster A. S. Roberts is instructing members of Troop 174 how to erect their tents.